Getting There from Here - Prose with Maureen Dunphy (Day Class): Mahany/Meininger Community Center, 3500 Marais, Royal Oak, 48073, Wednesdays, October 10, 17, 24, 31, November 7 & 14, 11am-1pm. Begin or return to that writing project of your dreams. Learn how to set writing goals that work for you and then discover the techniques that can help you achieve them. Share works in progress with a supportive group while you practice using the paths employed by successful writers to continue writing, achieve your objectives, and move toward completing your project, regardless of your genre. Workshop is limited to 8 participants. Dunphy earned her MFA in fiction writing from Goddard College. She has been published in Peninsula: Essays and Memoirs from Michigan (Michigan State University Press, 2000) and in Between the Lines: Writing What You Couldn't Say (Plain View Press, 2000). Her book Great Lakes Island Escapes: Ferries and Bridges to Adventure will be published by Wayne State University Press in May of 2016 (greatlakesislandescapes.com). She has taught creative writing courses at Oakland University, Oakland Community College-Orchard Ridge and the University of Windsor. Owner of Dunphy Consulting Services, LLC, she is interested in helping you write your way into your future and offers coaching services for writers, writing workshops and retreats, assistance with book proposals and manuscripts, and editing and proofreading services.
